

Coaching: practice of carrying passengers in a horse drawn coach.

Coming Out or Coming of Age: the time, usually between the ages of 18 and 21, when a daughter would enter into society. Parents officially notified the rest of society as to their daughter's coming out party.

Debut : A young woman's first official appearance at a formal social event.

Debutante: A young woman who is formally introduced into society at a public event such as a dance or party.

Etiquette: The rules and conventions governing correct or polite behavior in society.